Erin Ackor is a partner at the maritime and aviation law firm, Moore & Co, P.A., located in Miami, Florida, where she has been serving clients for more than 12 years, since Moore & Co. opened its doors in 2004.

Erin is the current ISS Treasurer and has been a board member since 2014. Erin also serves on the Admiralty Law Committee of the Florida Bar, as well as being a member of the Maritime Law Association and the Florida Yacht Brokers Association.

Erin grew up on the coast of Maine where she developed a passion for sailing and decided to focus her career on the maritime industry.

She spent several years as a professional crew member on board several different sailing yachts, transiting both the Panama and Suez Canals and sailing to numerous international destinations before deciding to attend Maine Maritime Academy.

Following her graduation from Maine Maritime Academy, Erin worked for both bulk and container cargo services, including Lykes Lines Limited headquartered in Tampa, Florida, before going to law school and joining Moore & Co.

Since joining Moore & Co., Erin has represented clients in both transactional and litigation matters, primarily devoting her practice to advising clients about vessel acquisition and sales, new construction, regulatory compliance, vessel finance, refurbishment and repair, chartering, registration and corporate structuring, crew employment issues and local customs and sales/use tax issues.

She notes that one of things she enjoys the most about working at Moore & Co.—and the superyacht industry in general—is being able to work with such diverse and talented people on a daily basis.

“I feel very fortunate to be doing such interesting work every day with such a great team of people. I could never imagine practicing any other type of law,” Erin is proud to say about her work and colleagues at Moore & Co. “There is never a dull moment!”

Erin lives in Coral Gables, Florida with her husband Mauricio. When not working, Erin and Mauricio enjoy traveling and spending time with family, which go hand in hand as Erin’s family is in Maine and Mauricio’s in Mexico City.
