

Call for Nominations to the 2017 ISS Board of Directors

Join the remarkable roster of the global superyacht industry's leadership who serve on the ISS Board of Directors.

If you would like to add yourself or another to the slate, nominations remain open until December 23rd. In such a case, please email your nomination including name, company and email to Amy Halsted, amyhalsted@gmail.com. Nominees should plan on submitting a complete biography and image, also to Amy, by December 23rd.

The official 2017 ISS Ballot will be distributed to ISS membership on 3 January 2017; voting will conclude on midnight 3 February 2017 with the new board seated the following day.

Be sure your membership is current. Voting for the ISS Board—which carries responsibility for its global strategic direction, forward-thinking initiatives and general disposition of the Society—is a privilege of membership.

If not a member, join today; www.superyachtsociety.org/members/membership to review membership benefits. You might also use our shopping site to efficiently process your membership: www.shop.superyachtsociety.org.

For the 2017 election, ISS membership will award eight (8) Board positions for three (3) years. Complete biographies of the nominees will be included in the official ballot.

News Page

ISS Home